

Reduced Noun Clause Practice

Rewrite the sentences below and reduce the noun clauses.

1. My doctor recommended that I stay in bed and drink lots of water.
2. Ralph admits that I am a better driver than he is.
3. Jane asked me if I could help her with her homework.
4. I hope that I get this job so I can start making some money.
5. Do you agree that you will be in charge of this project?
6. We don't know what we think about your decision to move to France.
7. My boss suggests that I take some Spanish classes to prepare me for my business trip.
8. Megan thought that she could attend the concert without buying a ticket in advance.
9. My mom didn't mention that she was mad at me for coming home late.
10. I'm tired today, so in class, I'm going to pretend that I am doing my assignment.

The following sentences have a reduced noun clause in them. Rewrite the sentences with a complete noun clause.

1. Lisa mentioned going to the beach after lunch.
2. Mom asked me to clean my room.
3. Jenny didn't know what to do about her expired driver's license.
4. My doctor recommends eating less fat and salt.
5. She pretended to be happy about the news.